Sub: Use of krishi pustika as training material

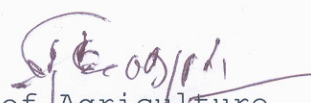

A number of krishi pustikas were published by SATSA, WB on important topics of present day agriculture, which will fulfill the need of our farmers. The pustikas are written in simple Bengali language with four-coloured pictures by scientists and technologists. The cost of the said krishi pustika is very reasonable.

The name of published krishi pustikas are follows:

1. Narkel, Supari o Golmarich chaser samasya o tar pratikar
2. Mati pariksha o phasale susama sar prayog
3. Pan chas -samasya o pratikar
4. Susanghata sasya suraksha-IPM
5. Krishite upkari jibanur bybahar
6. Jaiba Krishi
7. Baniyyik Sabji chas o sanrakshan
8. Beej utpadan prajukti
9. Dhan utpadaner unnata prajukti

You may consult the krishi pustika for extension and training purpose under different training programmes and refer the same to the Asst. D.As, K.P.Ss and farmers for better technical knowledge in the field of agriculture.

The address of the publisher of the said krishi pustikas is SATSA Bhawan, 8D Krishna Laha Lane, Kolkata-700012.
