

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF SATSA, WEST BENGAL, BIRBHUM UNIT

SRINIKETAN

20th DECEMBER, 2015

Guest of Honour; Sri Bikash Roy Choudhury, Savadhipati, Birbhum Zila Parishad in his address immensely praised members of SATSA, WB for their commitment towards their official duty and social activities. In his inspiring presence, 14 ceiling fans were handed over to the authority of three local primary schools and 5 eminent farmers were felicitated on the behalf of SATSA.

The second half of the day's program commenced with showing respect to the departed souls of Dipankar Sharma Choudhury and Dilip Das; members of SATSA, WB. District Secretary, Sri Amar Kumar Mandal in his speech stressed on the need of concerted effort of senior and junior members in boosting associational activities. He briefly discussed on the expectations of the members. In the interactive session the issue of manpower crisis was largely revealed. Sri Goshto Nayban; Jt. Secretary (Press&Publicity), SATSA, WB expressed his satisfaction that, consequent to the tireless effort of the members in official duty and social activities, it has transpired to all that, SATSA never restricted its activities only to the fulfillment of its demands.

Sri Goutam Kumar Bhowmick; General Secretary, SATSA, WB appealed to the members to utilise the opportunity of implementing the vision of the Govt. in proving our indispensability and reliability.